The presiding officer shall preserve order and decorum at all regular and special meetings of the City Commission and shall have the authority to regulate irrelevant debate, repetitious discussion, and disruptive behavior at a public meeting. However, a decision of the presiding officer may be overruled by a majority vote of the City Commission.

The City Commission recognizes the importance of protecting the right of its citizens and taxpayers to express their opinions on the operation of City government and encourages citizen participation in the local government process. The City Commission also recognizes the necessity for conducting orderly and efficient meetings in order to complete City business in a timely and proper manner.

Speakers shall confine their comments solely to the agenda item being discussed or to matters related to City business. Unless it is an agenda item, speakers are prohibited from discussing their own pending court cases and filed claims against the City or City personnel. Speakers may not engage in commercial advertisement or electioneering.

It is prohibited for any person to disturb or interrupt any meeting of the City Commission or otherwise fail to comport with the rules of decorum.
