Greetings,

I implore the city of Hallandale beach to do the right thing, join the movement to bring justice to our city that African Americans and other minority groups have been so long denied. Specifically I ask the following:

Disband SWAT + use $ for community programs.

Evaluate officers history in use of force, citizen complaints, etc + “eradicate bad cops” per the Broward Chief’s Association plan.

Carry out real justice for the death of Howard Bowe with accountability of the officers involved.

Thank you,
Samir Kakli

It seems that disbanding and/or defending certain police teams within the Hallandale police department and allocating funds towards community safety measures would be an appropriate response right now. Let's educate the citizens of these neighborhoods and give them the proper resources to engage in more safe and friendly ways of co-existing.

If we can properly guide each other to treat each other with more compassion there won't be this need for non-seminal militarized force.

As a Hallendale Beach resistant I am vehemently opposed to efforts to defund the police department or for any monies to be divested from the police. We cannot ignore the risks of increase in crime and to the public safety of our residents. We need to protect our residents and our homes. Defunding the police will hurt all people including the most vulnerable of us. These are action are reckless and dangerous and are not the answer. We must support our police who give their lives to protect and serve us.

Dear City Managers,

I am attaching a letter signed by 63 City Residents which we would like to be read or mentioned in the City Meeting today Jun 17, 2020

Best regards,

Hallandale Beach, June 16th, 2020

Dear Madam Mayor and Commissioners of Hallandale Beach City:

The undersigned, all residents of Hallandale Beach City, have heard that one or more commissioners from this city want to carry out the idea of defunding or abolishing the Police in our city in addition to attacking our SWAT team and asking for police officers to be charged for instances they were cleared of by a jury of our peers.

We want to express our strongest opposition, our NO to this idea. No society can live, much less prosper, without law or order, and that is what we should have if such a meaningless idea is able to impose itself: insecurity, chaos and total anarchy! What about our property values? What about our businesses? Who will want to invest and frequent our businesses?

The monstrous deaths of Mr. George Floyd in Minneapolis does not justify anyone on the commission attacking Hallandale Beach PD and the SWAT team resignation raises concerns to us as residents as we firmly stand with them and the rest of the police department.

We DO support our police chief together with proper police personnel to work on any reforms needed but not at the cost of throwing the SWAT team under the bus and having a divisive commissioner endanger the cops' lives with her dangerous anti-police rhetoric.

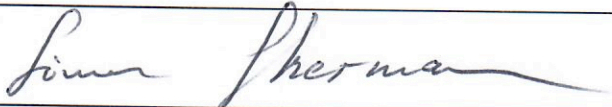

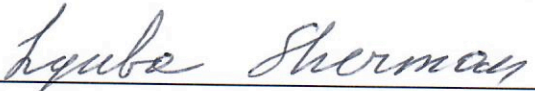

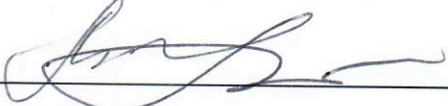

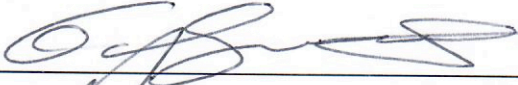

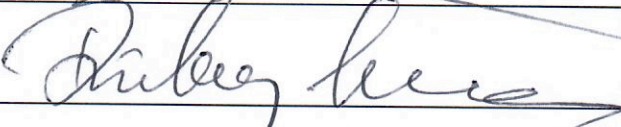

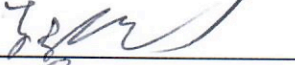

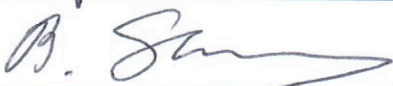

We are very concerned about our property values decreasing should you defund any part of the police department. Additionally, caving in to the demands of any organizations that call for defunding the police department will only empower them.

This is an election year and we are paying attention!!!

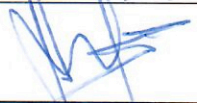

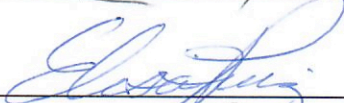

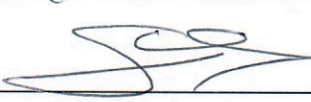

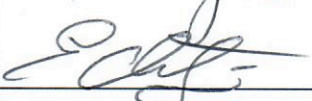

Sincerely,

I consider myself very lucky and honored that the children, grandchildren and great grandchildren of Rosa Lee Cooper, a pioneer of Hallandale Beach, consider me a part of their family. However, having grown up with white privilege, I cannot know some of the things they have endured in their lives. As a Jew, I have been called names and other verbal abuse, but I have never been pulled over for driving while Jewish. My Father never sat me down to tell me how to act if I get stopped by the police because I am Jewish and I never had that talk with my sons. When Karen and I applied for a mortgage to buy our house, I was not concerned that since we are Jewish and our house is in a predominantly Jewish neighborhood, the bank would not give us the mortgage, and many other challenges and indignities that people of color face their whole lives. While my brain realizes what they have had to endure, my heart cannot understand the toll those things can take.

Which brings me to Howard Bowe. Unfortunately, he is far from the only man of color that has been killed by Hallandale Beach police, but his killing is in the news right now, and I believe it can illustrate that there is a problem in our city. Let us assume that all the reasons that the police got a warrant to search Mr. Bowe's home remain the same, but we change two things about Mr. Bowe. We make him white instead of black and we put his house in Golden Isles instead of the northwest section of the city. With those two changes, I fervently believe that Howard Bowe would be alive today. If the color of your skin and the location of your house can increase or decrease the chances that you will be killed by police, then something is wrong. Whether the police violated the law or not during the raid is something I will leave to others, but as the Mayor of Atlanta said after the killing of Rayshard Brooks, "There are things the police can do, but they are not necessarily the things they should do."

It seems that there are many people, white people, in Hallandale Beach, who believe that there are problems in the police departments of Minneapolis, and Louisville and Buffalo and Fort Lauderdale and on and on, but in Hallandale Beach our police department is beyond reproach. A somewhat Pollyannaish way to look at it in my opinion. I agree that change is scary, especially when you have few interactions with the police, and all of them are positive. Like the phrase global warming, the phrase defund the police was poorly thought out. The more accurate phrase should be redefining the police. Police today are asked to do a variety of things that should have nothing to do with policing. Police should not have to take care of the homeless. Police should not have to be the ones deal with the mentally ill. Police should not be called to intervene in non-violent family disputes. These can all be handled less expensively and with more expertise with people whose whole training is in those areas. Police should not be wasting their time taking statements in fender benders. Commissioner Lima-Taub is sponsoring an excellent ordinance dealing with condominiums. After she addressed my concerns with the ordinance, I fully support it, but enforcement should be by forensic accountants and people who are experts in condominium law, not the police. That leaves the police free to spend all their time on dealing with crime. Robberies, assaults, and unfortunately sexual assaults and murder.

I am not looking to destroy the Hallandale Beach police department. I am looking to make it more responsive to the needs of the public in a kinder and gentler way. If we can come up with a way to handle all the things the police do now in a better and less expensive way and lowered the chance that a citizen regardless of skin color or ethnicity would be injured or killed by the police, why would we not at least examine it? I love this city and I want to do whatever I can to make it better. I think any and all ideas about improving the city should be discussed. Not just in policing, but in all areas. Discussion does not mean we must change. It means lets look at all the ideas for improving life in the city and adopt those that work best for Hallandale Beach.

Hi,

I am Tiffany Burks, Community Organizer with Black Lives Matter Alliance Broward. Recently, the entire Hallandale SWAT team resigned due to their unchecked egos and statements from Hallandale Beach Vice Mayor, Sabrina Javellana, at recent protests. In the words of the wise Lizzo, "Truth Hurts". Back in 2014, Hallandale SWAT conducted a no-knock raid at the home of Howard Bowe and killed him #SayHisName. Today we have the opportunity to completely disband the SWAT team, let's get their budget reallocated to our communities today! Follow these steps below by 4:30 PM today and once you are done register for our debrief meeting tonight at 7:30 PM.

Here are our demands for the Hallandale Beach City:

1. Disband SWAT and reallocate their entire budget for community programs
2. Evaluate officers history in use of force, citizen's complaints and "eradicate bad cops" per Broward Chief's Associations plan

Hi Joy, hope all is well with you and Harry.

I am writing you today because Jimmy and I are very upset that the entire swat team handed in their resignation, over what I consider an ill thought out decision of our police chief.

With the huge tax base Hallandale enjoys, mainly collected on the East side, we should be afforded the very best, and complete police force, including our own swat team. We should not be dependent on surrounding city's swat team.

The police chief's actions has caused us to feel less secure, especially trapped in a high rise.

I specifically remember a few years ago, right around the anniversary of 9/11, someone from La Mer called 911 to report a suspicious character dressed in black with a hood, was seen by security with the elevator camera. Swat team was dispatched and police were dropped by rope to the roof of La Mer to start their search for the hooded person. We actually could see them from our balcony and it was quite impressive. It is a shame that the misguided political actions of our police chief has left us less safe and more vulnerable.

She should have left her politics outside the door of her office. She represents all of us, not just some of us.

Nothing personal Joy, but we wanted you to know our concerns.

Be well, stay well!

Best,

Carol
