Can you please review the appeal process for parking citations to extend beyond 14 calendar days or require parking enforcement units to mail out the letters the same date as it's dated. I recently received a citation which only arrived on January 18th, while the appeal expired January 17th due to the dated letter of January 3rd, but mail stamp was only sent out on the 14th. By delaying mailing until near expiration, it prevents citizens from having the opportunity to appeal any citation. Thanks!
