Hallandale Beach, Fl.33009
Resident 5 years Hallandale Beach, Fl.

High School Graduate 1970 . Springfield Garden H.S Queens N.Y.
Attended: N.Y.City Community College 2 years.

After attending College I decided to seek a career in the construction field.

I was a Appearance in the glass industry for 4 years in a NYC ,firm was based in Manhattan.After one year became a full fledged mechanic for numerous years.

I was then approached by owners of firm asking me if I would be interested in becoming a partner in a running Glass and Glazing Co. At that point accepted and eventually wound up running entire company for 35 years successfully. As I became more involved in my community I saw a need for helping elderly home owners who lived in substandard housing.

I sought help from some religious and government agencies in the city for funding and partnerships.I reached out to World Changer/ Students I knew they were involved in such endeavors I was asked to go and volunteer for a week and was given a crew of student volunteers . after going as a volunteer to Cornwall Ontario for a week I was hooked I volunteered for 12 years till i moved to Hallandale.

I also volunteered with Habitat for Humanity , But as I was so involved with World Changers it took up a lot of time away. I was now one of the Coordinators (Neptune City N.J.) of whole project which at the at one point we had 650 volunteers Adults and Students.

At the same time Chairman of Deacons for Colts neck Community Church Colts Neck N.J.

As well as in charge of benevolence committee being involved running a large church every day activities.

Was involved with Disaster Relief unit with the Southern Baptist N.J. Chapter. Was asked to represent the Southern Baptist Convention Disaster Relief unit at a SEPT 11. Memorial at foot of where the towers once stood.

I have volunteered for the past 2 1/2 years with Hallandale Preservation Committee. And at this point would like to continue participating with committee as a volunteer.

Sincerely
Joseph Greenberg
