A "resolution" is an expression of the commission on matters of official concern, opinion, or administration, of a temporary character, or a provision for the disposition of a particular item of the administrative business of the governing body.

- (1) Form. Each ordinance or resolution shall be introduced in writing and shall embrace but one (1) subject and matters properly connected therewith. The subject shall be clearly stated in the title. No ordinance shall be revised or amended by reference to its title only. Ordinances to revise or amend shall set out in full the revised or amended act, section, subsection, or paragraph of a section or subsection.
- (2) Procedure. A proposed ordinance shall be read by title or in full on the first reading, and by title or in full on the second reading on at least two (2) separate days, at either regular or special meetings of the commission. The notice of proposed enactment shall state the date, time and place of the meeting, the title or titles of proposed ordinances and the place or places within the city where such proposed ordinances may be inspected by the public. Said notice shall also advise that interested parties may appear at the meeting and be heard with respect to the proposed ordinance.
- (3) Effective date. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, every adopted ordinance shall become effective ten (10) days after adoption or as otherwise specified therein.
- (4) Action requiring an ordinance. In addition to other acts required by law or by specific provision of this Charter to be done by ordinance, those acts of the city commission shall be by ordinance which:

After its adoption, the ordinance shall be published once in a newspaper of general circulation.
- (3) Effective date. Emergency ordinances shall become effective upon adoption or at such other date as may be specified in the ordinance.
- (4) Repeal. Every emergency ordinance except emergency appropriations shall automatically stand repealed as of the 61st day following the date on which it was adopted, but this shall not prevent reenactment of the ordinance under regular procedures, or if the emergency still exists, in the manner specified in this section.
