Narrative description of Community Service of Nominee: Examples - Voluntary and/or unpaid work, intended to help the community and its residents, e.g., fundraising, collecting and preparing, distributing or serving others, etc.

Chef Deraine Holmes voluntarism was exemplary in his giving to the Hepburn Center to the after-school program. Each year he would sponsor children with clothing and backpacks for upcoming school year. Additionally, his generosity continued with feeding the homeless. When completing catering jobs and food was left over, he would provide meals to the homeless throughout the city. Furthermore, for years he has donated school supplies and bikes for kids during the Hope for Holidays initiative with Sandra Atkins. I was so proud of his success as a young entrepreneur in our community but even more with him giving back to the less fortunate.

Narrative description of Inclusiveness: Examples - Strong sense of connection to the cause work group, club or organization. Ensure that a cross-section of the community is engaged .

Because of his work schedule, his organization was fostered by the Food Truck community and mentoring young food trucker. Although he was just starting his business, he decided to help a fellow food truck owner to enhance her business and now she is also thriving. What was so special about Chef "Deraine" Holmes he wanted everyone to excel in the Food Truck community. He didn't look at other fellow food truck owners as competition but as family

Narrative description of Collaboration: Examples - Community problem solving. May elect to contribute talents through specialized services. Establishment of partnerships

His talent was cooking, compassionate and giving and he share this gift with the community. He offered special discount to individuals and business just because you were a Hallandale Beach resident. Most Chef don't extend that type of service each time a business opportunity arises. Just an amazing and generous young man. We truly going to miss him in this community.

Narrative description of Ethics (Honesty & Integrity): Examples - Trustworthy to the community. Committed to the group or organization and the cause or mission it represents. Engendering trust within the community.

His commitment and love for his city was amazing. During the first Food and Wine Festival in Hallandale, his food presentation and service was impeccable and made the City of Hallandale Beach CRA employee extremely proud. His honesty, hard work and integrity was the forefront and foundation of him partnering with the City for an actual brick-and-mortar restaurant that was in the making with a grand opening for 2022. This young man was star in our community who made a difference in his short life. Please consider him and honor his legacy as the 2022 Martin Luther King Humanitarian recipient.

Mr. Holmes asked to meet with me around 2016-2017. During that meeting Mr. Holmes expressed his desire to become an entrepreneur and own his own top of the class food. I made some suggestions on the path he should take to make his dream into a reality. Not to my surprise every time I spoke with Mr. Holmes after that first he was completing step after step until Smokin Bones became a reality and best darn ribs and on this side of heaven.

Mr. Holmes earned this Martin Luther King Humanitarian Award even though he is not here to receive and give up that big smile that said I love and I love what I'm doing. I always called him Mr. Holmes because he earned that respect, he was a wonderful young man amongst men.

Narrative description of Community Service of Nominee: Examples - Voluntary and/or unpaid work, intended to help the community and its residents, e.g., fundraising, collecting and preparing, distributing or serving others, etc.

Gerard has been active in the Hallandale Beach Community this past year. He has organized a swim suit drive at the YMCA where he has asked for donations for children's swimsuits. Many children cannot seek out swim lessons because they are embarrassed that they don't have the right swimwear. Gerard is providing these suits to give them the opportunity to learn to swim. He also just recently had a school supply drive for kids in the community. In the upcoming month, he will help host a healthy kids day event at the Y. Gerard is also trying to help others who may be less fortunate. He is a kind, giving individual who thinks of others before himself.
